

Please complete the boxes most applicable to you with brief information about the research you wish to share (one form per piece of research).

KEYWORDS: heritage; tourism; enactment; education; transferable skills; heritage sites e.g. students, employers, skills (more than one may be appropriate)

TITLE: Educational Enactment at Heritage Sites: issues in practice

PURPOSE: Identification of the current skill sets and motivations of educational enactors working in the Southwest and the influence these have on their employability and professionalism

EXPECTED/ACTUAL COMPLETION DATE:
July 08

METHOD (please include information about the number and type of participants):
Observation of current practice; individual semi-structured interviews with educational enactment employees and volunteers and their employers; semi-structured interviews with managers, archaeologists and historians working at sites where enactments take place.

OUTCOMES OF RESEARCH (if complete):
N/A

COMPLETED RESEARCH:

How will the findings be disseminated?

Heritage and tourism employer conference presentations

SWLLN report for heritage and tourism employers (online)

Advisory role in development of curriculum for heritage and tourism related courses

Academic tourism conference presentation paper

Published tourism conference proceedings

Is a final report available? NO

CONTACT NAME: Peter Oakley
EMAIL: poakley@bournemouth.ac.uk
ORGANISATION: South West Lifelong Learning Network (SWLLN)

Once complete please email to: n.hooper@hull.ac.uk