TITLE:

Gloucestershire College

• PURPOSE:

Their proposal was to develop an employer focused blended learning programme for 'Preparing to teach in the lifelong learning sector' (PTLLS).

The project aims to develop a rapid response to employer needs and to directly involve employers (St. Johns Ambulance) in the development of the e-learning material and delivery model. The project is not seeking to develop the content of this programme. The development of a flexible delivery mode will aim to meet the needs of the business and the workforce. It is intended that the successful model will be rolled out to other employers and the case study will be available as part of the dissemination plan.
