

Please complete the boxes most applicable to you with brief information about the research you wish to share (one form per piece of research).

KEYWORDS: e-learning; OpenLearn; heritage; tourism; vocational e.g. students, employers, skills (more than one may be appropriate)

TITLE: Trialling Online Materials with Vocational Learners: a case study for the heritage and tourism sectors

PURPOSE: A trial to identify the suitability of specific OpenLearn courses that could potentially support vocational learners currently working in the heritage and tourism sectors

EXPECTED/ACTUAL COMPLETION DATE:

July 08

METHOD (please include information about the number and type of participants):
Observed participant trials of all or part of the online courses; questionnaire covering the participants level of ability in using and exposure to computers; questionnaire covering the participants perceptions of the course after completion of the trial; interviews with employers to identify training needs

OUTCOMES OF RESEARCH (if complete):

N/A

COMPLETED RESEARCH:

How will the findings be disseminated?

SWLLN heritage and tourism employer conference presentations

SWLLN report for heritage and tourism employers (online)

Advisory role in development of curriculum materials for heritage related courses

JISC southwest E-learning Conference Presentation

Bournemouth University Partners Conference Presentation

Bournemouth University Partners Conference Published Proceedings

JISC southwest regional online forum

Is a final report available? NO

CONTACT NAME: PETER OAKLEY

EMAIL: poakley@bournemouth.ac.uk

ORGANISATION: South West Lifelong Learning Network (SWLLN)

Once complete please email to: n.hooper@hull.ac.uk